US E&O at

AEGIS London

Bespoke coverage for a range of occupations and classes, including Professional Liability, General Liability and Directors & Officers Liability

US professionals operate in highly litigious environments, where defence costs and settlements run high and a single allegation can threaten both finances and reputation. AEGIS London writes US Professional Liability as a Lloyd's lead market, with an experienced team that knows the class. We provide responsive service, expert underwriting and claims, and the confidence brokers need to place business effectively.
